

Christine Grimm

Founder, Principal Consultant, Executive Coach & Facilitator

christineg@ariacx.com

Christine Grimm has over 25 years' experience helping executives grow organizations and lead meaningful change for themselves, their people and their company.

As a practice leader in the area of alignment, she guides major endeavors to grow, merge and restructure organizations, blend and improve the performance of leadership teams and move organizations forward, ensuring that individuals and teams perform better, sustainably.

Her client list includes: Microsoft, Endeavor (WME-IMG), Lagardère Sports and Entertainment, The Walt Disney Company, Amazon Consumer Payments, The Motion Picture Association, T-Mobile, RGP, TiVo, AGICOA (Geneva), Northrup Grumman, AEG, Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield (URW), Witco Vinyl Additives Group GmbH (Germany), The Children's Cancer Association, The Office of Homeland Security, The US Environmental Protection Agency, and many others.

She received her undergraduate degree from Pepperdine University where she also earned a Secondary Teaching Credential for the State of California. She attended graduate programs at University of California, Santa Barbara, is a member of Forbes Coaches Council and is a regular contributor to Forbes.com. Christine is a past President of the Pepperdine Alumni Leadership Council and serves on advisory boards for BoomCloud 360, Live! Official, and Society5 Innovating for Pediatric Healthcare.